As the days of extreme heat follow one another with regularity the fact that Indianapolis has had but one heat prostration becomes more remarkable. In nearly all the larger cities of the country many prostrations and deaths have been reported. but Indianapolis fortunately, it is thought, holds the record for large cities. And it is not because the heat here has been so much less than other places. Yesterday the highest temperature recorded was 93, this being the registration at 2 and 3 o'clock. Those who have had much to do with such matters say they are at a loss to account for the good fortune of Indianapolis. Business has proceeded without interruption and only a small percentage of the population has sought relief in shady spots. The local weather bureau last night reported the following registrations of the thermometer for the day:

The forecast is for continued hot weather, with occasional local thunderstorms, which as yet have not appeared in Indiana Yesterday there were several periods of cloudiness, which, with stiff breezes, at times gave great relief from the heat which in the absence of winds is almost unbearable owing to the fact that the pavements and solid bodies have become so thoroughly impregnated with heat. The late afternoon witnessed refreshing breezes, which died out for about an hour, causing much suffering, especially at the time when people were hurrying to and from home. "Several days more." is what the weather man here says.

Last night's reports to the Weather Bureau, at Washington, show that extreme section of the country affected by the hot wave, but that in quite a number of localities the thermometer was a few degrees lower than on Wednesday. West of the Mississippi, where the thermometer has been very high, the moderation in temperatures from expected thunderstorms will be much charper than in the East. In the northeastern section of the United States predictions for cooler weather to-day are made, resulting from winds from the ocean and a similar result will be felt in the lake region from a like cause. St. Paul, Minn. experienced a sharp fall in the thermometer of 22 degrees, due to local showers.

Reports received at the Weather Bureau last night showed the following maximum high temperatures at the places named Atlanta, Ga., 92; Boston, 72, a fall of 24 deress from yesterday at Boston; Buffalo 2. a fall of 4 degrees; Chicago, 94, a rise of 10; Cincinnati, 92, no change; Davenport, 1a., 100, a raise of 8; Denver, no change; Galveston, 84, reduction of 6; Indianapolis 92, reduction of 2; Jacksonville, Fla., 8 same as yesterday; Kansas City, 104, rise of 2; Little Rock, Ark., 96, reduction of 2 degree; Memphis, 94, reduction of 2; New Orleans, 84, reduction of 8; New York, 86, reduction of 8; North Platte, Neb., 100, same as yesterday; Omaha, Neb., 98, a rise of 4; Pittsburg, 86, reduction of 4; Salt Lake City, 78, reduction of 14; St. Loius, 98, same as yesterday; St. Paul, Minn., 90, reduction 2; Springfield, Ill., 98, a rise of 8, and MANILA, July 4.-Civil government in the Philippines has been auspiciously inlugurated. Commissioner Taft was escorted by General MacArthur and General Chaffee from the palace to a great temporary tribune just outside the plaza Palacio. Standing on a projecting center of the tribune William H. Taft, the new civil Governor of the Philippine islands, took he oath of office administered by Chief Justice Arellano. Governor Taft was then introduced by General MacArthur, the guns of Fort Santiago being fired by way of a salute. The following message from President McKinley to Governor Taft was read: "Upon the assumption of your new duties lations to you and your associate commis already accomplished. I extend to you my full confidence and best wishes for still greater success in the larger responsibilities now devolved upon you, and the assurance not only of myself, but for my countrymen, of good will for the people of the islands and the hope that their participation in the government which it is our purpose to develop among them may lead to their highest advancement, happiness and

TAFT'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS. A feature of Governor Taft's inaugural address was the announcement that on Sept. 1, 1901, the commission would be increased by the appointment of three native members, Dr. Wardo Detavera, Denito Legarda and Jose Lusurgia. Before the 1st of September departments will exist as follows, heads having been arranged for thus: Interior, Worcester; commerce and police, accident. Wright; justice and finance, Ide; public instruction, Moses. Of the twenty-seven provinces organized, Civil Governor Taft said the insurrection still exists in five. This will cause the continuance of the military government in these sections. Sixteen additional provinces are reported withbeen organized. Four provinces are not ready for civil government. The speaker predicted that with the con centration of troops into larger garrisons it would be necessary for the people to assist the police in the preservation of order. Fleet launches will be procured, he said, which will facilitate communication among the provinces as well as aid the postal and revenue departments. In connection with educational efforts, Civil Governor Taft said that adults should be educated by an observation of American methods. He said there was a reasonable hope that Congress would provide a tariff suitable, one that would assist in the development of the Philippines instead of an application of the United States tariff. According to the civil Governor there is an unexpended balance in the insular treasury of $3,700,000 and an annual income of $10,000,000. He said that any possible nates should be discouraged. signed the resolution. The free-trade resolution begins with a preamble in which reference is made to Section 3 of the Foraker law. The resolu-

session and acting pursuant to the instruc-tions of Congress, does hereby notify the President of the United States that by virtue of the Hollander act and other acts it has enacted and put into operation a system of local taxation to meet the necessities of insular government, and it hereby directs that a copy of this joint resolution be presented to the President of the United States, and it requests that Governor Allen deliver the resolution in question to President McKinley, to the end that the proclamation may be made by him, and if it shall seem wise and proper to the Presi-dent of the United States the Assembly requests that his proclamation be issued July 25, as that day is being established a legal Porto Rican holiday to commemorate the anniversary of the coming of the American flag.

Governor Allen personally read a message before the assembly, in which he exhaustively reviewed the financial situation of the island, and showed that Porto Rico possessed abundant revenues for its needs without drawing upon customs receipts. Mr. Hollander's report on the island's resources from which revenue could be derived was considered sufficiently definite to warrant the joint resolution in favor of HIS CONDITION LATE LAST NIGHT

The resolution was introduced by Senor Morales. Mr. Hollander, in a long speech, reviewed the workings of the new tax law and explained the new system of taxation. Yesterday, the anniversary of the destruction of Admiral Cervera's squadron, there was a yacht excursion to the Spanish wrecks, where a salute was fired and an oration delivered by a loyal Spaniard on the wreck of the Almirante Oquendo. The speaker said he was sorry the grand ships of the Spanish navy had been destroyed, but he declared himself greatly pleased with the administration of the Americans and asserted that the outcome of the war would be beneficial to Cuba.

To-day there was a demonstration of unprecedented interest by the Americans. The Cubans participated, and a crowd of several thousand, by unanimous vote, declared that the Fourth of July ought to be a permanent holiday throughout the Cuban republic.
